MICHIGAN NONPROFIT ASSOCIATION JOINS GLOBAL LEADERS TO DISCUSS THE FUTURE OF VOLUNTEER SERVICE

LANSING, Michigan – Michigan Nonprofit Association (MNA), a state-wide membership organization dedicated to serving the nonprofit sector, will join thousands of people from all over the world at the Points of Light Conference on Volunteering and Service at Cobo Center in Detroit from June 27-29. This conference provides an opportunity for dialogue and identification of collaboration opportunities for people who care about the future of volunteer service.

Donna Murray-Brown, president and CEO of MNA, will join Neil Bush, chairman of Points of Light, at the opening plenary Monday, June 27 at 8:30 a.m. in Room 330 AB. Murray-Brown will also participate in a panel discussion at 2:30 p.m. in Room 358. The session, “Building a Community of Philanthropy – Our State of Generosity,” will share lessons from Michigan. MNA will join hundreds of organizations in the exhibit hall. Please visit us at Booth #66.

“Michigan Nonprofit Association is pleased to be a partner and bring our expertise in nonprofit capacity-building to the conference,” said Donna Murray-Brown, president and CEO. “Through cooperation and collaboration, our shared vision of a world where people in all countries live in strong, vibrant communities will become a reality.”

About MNA

Incorporated in 1990, MNA is a statewide membership organization dedicated to serving the diverse nonprofit sector through civic engagement, capacity-building, data and technology, training, and advocacy.
