MICHIGAN NONPROFIT ASSOCIATION (MNA) CONGRATULATES MEMBERS RECOGNIZED BY CRAIN'S DETROIT BUSINESS

Crain's Best-Managed Nonprofit Award Recognizes Two MNA Members

DETROIT, Michigan – Crain's Detroit Business has announced the finalists and winner of their annual Best-Managed Nonprofit award. This award honors the best in leadership and financial stewardship in Southeast Michigan's nonprofit community. As part of this year's application process, organizations were asked to outline how they overcame a challenge. Included among the honorees were MNA members Presbyterian Villages of Michigan, the winning organization, and Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Detroit, a finalist.

"Michigan Nonprofit Association is proud to see our members being recognized for the fantastic work they do for Michigan's communities," said Donna Murray-Brown, MNA President & CEO. "We congratulate them on a job well done, and look forward to continuing to serve them in the years to come."

Presbyterian Villages of Michigan is a nonprofit, faith-based organization that operates senior living communities throughout the state of Michigan. For more information, visit www.pvm.org.

Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Detroit is a community-driven organization committed to taking care of the needs of the Jewish people and building a vibrant Jewish future, in metropolitan Detroit, in Israel and around the world. For more information, visit www.jewishdetroit.org.
