MICHIGAN NONPROFIT ASSOCIATION NAMES JENEE L. VELASQUEZ AS NEW CHAIR OF BOARD OF DIRECTORS

LANSING, Michigan – Michigan Nonprofit Association (MNA), a state-wide association serving the nonprofit sector, today announced the appointment of Jenee L. Velasquez to the position of Chair of the Board of Directors.

Ms. Velasquez is the executive director for The Herbert H. and Grace A. Dow Foundation. Previously, she served as CEO of Midland County's economic development corporation, Midland Tomorrow. Velasquez succeeds Ms. Sheilah P. Clay, President and CEO of Neighborhood Service Organization, who will continue as a member of the Board of Directors.

"Jenee's success as a nonprofit executive as well as her business experience will be invaluable as she leads MNA through the next phase of its growth and development," said Clay. "I am extremely pleased to have an executive of her stature continue the work of the association and its initiatives."

"I'm thrilled to be leading this organization dedicated to serving the diverse nonprofit sector," said Velasquez. "For twenty-five years, MNA has been a model for nonprofits in Michigan through its programs and initiatives, and I am looking forward to building on this success."
