MICHIGAN NONPROFIT ASSOCIATION PRESIDENT & CEO ACCEPTED TO HARVARD BUSINESS SCHOOL PROGRAM

Executive Education Program to Focus on Mastering Nonprofit Leadership

LANSING, Michigan – Michigan Nonprofit Association (MNA), a state-wide association serving the nonprofit sector, today announced that Donna Murray-Brown, President & CEO, has been accepted to Harvard Business School's Executive Education program, "Strategic Perspectives in Nonprofit Management."

"Strategic Perspectives in Nonprofit Management" is a nationwide program for nonprofit CEOs and executive directors. Individuals accepted into the program will learn strategies that will improve and strengthen the effectiveness of their nonprofit organizations.

"Donna Murray-Brown continually draws on her public and private sector experience to make MNA the best organization it can be," said Jenee Velasquez, Chair of MNA's Board of Directors. "On behalf of the entire board of directors, I congratulate her on acceptance into this prestigious program where she will gain expanded insights that will be useful to our members and organization."
