MICHIGAN NONPROFIT ASSOCIATION PRESIDENT & CEO DONNA MURRAY-BROWN TO SPEAK AT LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

Presentation to Focus on the State of the Nonprofit Sector

LANSING, Michigan – Michigan Nonprofit Association (MNA), a state-wide association serving the nonprofit sector, today announced that Donna Murray-Brown, President & CEO, will speak at the 41st Annual MARO Spring Leadership Conference. MARO members provide employment, independent living, skill-building and rehabilitation training to people with barriers. MARO members help put people to work and back into the community.

The three-day conference is scheduled for June 3-5 at the Park Place Hotel in Traverse City, Michigan. Murray-Brown will speak on Wednesday, June 3 at 1:15 p.m. on the state of Michigan's nonprofit sector.

"It is extremely important to help those with disabilities find their place within Michigan's workforce," said Donna Murray-Brown, President & CEO. "I am looking forward to joining leaders at MARO's annual conference to discuss how we can remove employment barriers for those in need."
