MICHIGAN NONPROFIT ASSOCIATION ANNOUNCES 2015 MICHIGAN NONPROFIT CAUCUS CO-CHAIRS

Group works to support key economic sector

LANSING, Mich. – Michigan Nonprofit Association (MNA), a statewide organization serving the nonprofit sector, today announced the 2015 Michigan Nonprofit Caucus co-chairs.

The Michigan Nonprofit Caucus is a bipartisan, bicameral group focused on legislative and regulatory issues that affect nonprofit organizations and foundations in Michigan. The aim of the caucus is to support Michigan’s nonprofit sector through legislative action. The caucus also serves as a resource on the issues facing the nonprofit sector.

This session’s co-chairs are:

Sen. Bert Johnson, D-Highland Park

Sen. John Proos, R-St. Joseph

Sen. Wayne Schmidt, R-Traverse City

Sen. Rebekah Warren, D-Ann Arbor

Rep. Stephanie Chang, D-Detroit

Rep. Vanessa Guerra, D-Saginaw

Rep. Amanda Price, R-Holland

Rep. Rob VerHeulen, R-Walker

“We’re so pleased to have these legislators working on behalf of the state’s nonprofit organizations,” said Joan Bowman, senior director of public affairs and communication at MNA. “With their help, we can enhance the nonprofit sector’s contributions to the state’s economy and environment and to state residents’ health, education and overall well-being,”
